E. R. HUNT LEAVES RAILROAD SERVICE

After 18 years of faithful service in the employ of the Denver & Rio Grande, E. R. Hunt, general agent for the Gould system at Butte, Mont., has tendered his resignation, effective Jan. 1, to enter business as a member of the firm of Richardson, Grant company, wholesale crockery dealers of this city. Mr. Hunt, since he day he was agent at Eureka, has enjoyed a large circle of acquaintances in this intermountain region and is well known in railroad and shipping circles in Utah and contiguous states. For a number of years he was connected with the Salt Lake office and then went to Ogden as traveling freight agent, to be later promoted to Butte. Today he is listening to the good wishes of his friends, his only regret being that he did not cut loose from railroading earlier.

WILL ATTEMPT TO PROVE AN ALIBI

If George Lowell can prove an alibi for the night of October 7, when he is charged with attempting to rob a rooming house in this city, the charge of burglary in the second degree preferred against him will probably be withdrawn and the case dismissed. Lowell applied to the District court yesterday for an order directing that subpoenas be issued for William Newton, an attorney of Salt Lake, and the day clerk sergeant at the Salt Lake police station, requiring them to come to Ogden and testify in his behalf. These residents of Salt Lake, the prisoner says, will swear that he was a prisoner in the Salt Lake City jail up on a charge of vagrancy and drunkenness the evening the Ogden burglary occurred. Lowell says he was booked on the police blotter at the Salt Lake City police station under the name of William Rice. He claims to have talked with both of the Salt Lake witnesses he desires on that day, and is certain that they will remember him if they are brought here to testify.

Upon the showing made, District Judge J. A. Howell issued the order directing the sheriff of this county to notify the two witnesses that their presence as witnesses at the trial will be necessary.

SIMS PURCHASES THE JOIE THEATER

The Joie Moving Picture Show passed yesterday into the hands of Messrs. H. H. Sims, W. W. Hodgkinson, Albert Scowcroft and Charlie Ziener, who now own all the moving picture houses in Ogden. Manager Ellis of the Joie sold all his interest in the Joie for a good consideration, and will probably leave Ogden to locate in some other place. His moving picture business has been a paying proposition, and since it has passed into the hands of the above mentioned people it will be conducted along the same first class lines as heretofore.

Mr. Sims says, in speaking of the transaction: "We have taken over the Joie and we intend to make extensive improvements and give the same high class pictures and the same courteous treatment we have the reputation of giving."

SUSPECTS ARE CAUGHT; AND FEIGN DRUNKNESS

Accompanied by his charming bride, W. E. Traugher, managing editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, is spending a short honeymoon in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Traugher were married at Salt Lake yesterday at the home of the bride, and came directly to Ogden to spend their honeymoon. Mrs. Traugher was formerly Miss Cora Leigh, one of the most brilliant women of the capital city. For the past few months she has been employed in the editorial department of the Salt Lake Evening Telegram. Mrs. Traugher's home is in Kentucky, but she has been living in the west for several years. Mr. Traugher is highly popular in Salt Lake and local newspaper circles, and is regarded as one of the state's brightest newspaper men.

JAPS LOSE THEIR BANK ROLL IN ELECTRIC ALLEY

Emma Thompson, a negress of the underworld, is at the police station, held as a suspect in connection with the robbery of two Japs, who claim that the woman "touched" them for $450 at a resort in Electric alley last night.

The Japs say they went into the place and were there about a half hour. After leaving they missed a roll containing the above amount. The robbery was reported to the police, and Patrolmen Vance and Hearn made the arrest. But the money was found in the possession of the woman, and a thorough search of the resort failed to locate the missing roll.
